Programme for Baptist Roll Call.

The calendar of the Baptist church for the week of Jan. 12 contains this for the week of Jan. 12 contains this happy reference by the pastor, Rev. W. F. Rowley, to the roll call of the church Tuesday evening: "It was with intense enthusiasm in the far-off days that the Isrealites went up to their great festivals, at Jerusalem. Our church festivals, the roll call, comes Tuesday evening. Let cheer, courage, consecration be our watchwords as we draw near the spirit of kindly charity, invoking the Heavenly Father's blessing upon our work for the year 1913. The programme will be partly as follows: 7 p. m., supper; roll call; toasts; The programme will be partly as follows: 7 p. m., supper; roll call: toasts; Three Minute Thoughts; The Church Family; The Older Folks; Caring for the Children; Three Training Schools; Dorcas—Her Kneating and Her Knitting; Our Distant Relatives; The Family Purse; Greetings and goodbyes; social hour and good night songs."

CITY COURT.

Haddad, Fined, Takes an Appeal Trouble Maker Warned.

The adjourned case of Hassef D. Haddad, charged with using objectionable language to a young Syrian woman, was tried before Judge Arnold in the police court Saturday morning. The testimony revealed the fact that young Haddad had been previously warned against such conduct. He was found guilty and fined $1 and costs, but appealed and furnished bonds for his appearance at the next criminal term of the superior court. Judge Arnold gave a fellow, Chickering by name, one of the state's witnesses, a severe warning about his being a trouble maker and mixup in this affair, and told him unless he pursued a more peaceable course he might expect a jail sentence if he was brought before the court.

OBITUARY.

William Pendergast.

William Pendergast, 22, who died in Providence and was burled in Day-ville Saturday, was a nephew of Christopher Campbell of Putnam and William Campbell of Dayville. The young man, who was to have taken up a course of study leading to the degree of a physician, died following an operation for appendicitis.

WANDER TWO MILES. Olsen Children, from Willimantic, Lonesome at County Home.

Considerable damage was done in the vicinity of Oakland Beach where many Danielson people have cottages, during the recent big gale.

The local Methodist church will be represented today at the meeting of representatives of a dozen churches with the Methodist church in Putnam for study of a plan of the commission on evangelism. Two children, a boy and a girl, aged respectively 6 and 4 years, Olson children, who came to the institution only two days before from Willimantle, wandered away from the county home for children Saturday and came to this city, a distance of more than two miles.

They were soaked from the rain when found on the streets and were taken to the office of Torrey and Gelssier, where after some questioning it was surmised that the children were from the home. They had become lone-afternoon noted that attention has been paid to the new law requiring that the net weight in foodstuff packages be marked. In one instance signs had been posted giving warning that goods were being sold by the package and not by weight or measure.

The word food as construed under the statute in question includes all articles whether simpe or mixed or compound used for food, drink, confectionery or condiment, by man or animal. The law, therefore, affects the sale of bottled goods. This latter class of goods has been labeled to show the net weight of the contents by local business men.

In Wood's hall Sunday afternoon those who are to compose the choral union that is to sing at the joint installation exercises of L'Union St. Jean Baptiste societies were in rehearsal for what is to be quite an important ceremony. business men Express Business Good.

The parcels post business has made a notable cut into the number of small packages heretofore forwarded by other means from this city. However, the express company's business out of the Capt. Elbert L. Darbie to Be Admitted express company's business out of the city shows, on the whole, greater receipts for the first 11 days of 1913 than was the case during the same period for last year. As yet there has been no change in the rates quoted by the express company for the sending of small packages from this city. Close tabs is being kept by express agents in all surrounding towns on the amount of business Uncle Sam's new department is getting and they will be expected to make reports on the same.

capt. Elbert L. Darbie to Be Admitted to the Bar at Hartford Tuesday.

Announcement was received here Sunday morning that Captain Elbert L. Darbie has successfully passed his examinations to practice law in Connecticut and that he is to be admitted to the bar of the state at a session of the superior court to be held in Hartford tomorrow (Tuesday). Captain Darbie was showered with congratulations Sunday by friends who came to know of his new honor.

Captain Darbie was born in Danielson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Darbie of Main street. His education was obtained in the graded and high schools of Killingly. Alwaye a very proficient and careful student, his advance toward admission to practice law has been steady since he entered the offices of Judge Harry E. Back as a clerk on September 15, 1906.

December 30, 1908, he took his preliminary examinations, and registered as a student of law on January 11, 1909. December 27 and 28 last his final examinations were taken at Hartford, this being his first trial for admission. He was one out of the large number who took the examinations to measure up to the difficult test imposed.

During the years that Captain Darbie has applied himself to studying for his profession he has been active along other lines. In the military service of the state since it was possible for him to enlist, he has risen to be captain of the Thirteenth company, C. A. C., has a special assignment on inspection service in the state and is a member of the military institute, Governor's Island, N. Y. He is the senior warden of Moriah lodge, No. 15, A. P. and A.
